Presentation:

Sauk Valley Community College remembers Mary Weller, former Associate Professor of Biology. Mary earned her Bachelor's degree from Clarke College and her Master of Science degree from Northern Illinois University. She began at Sauk Valley Community College in 1966 as an Assistant Professor of Biology. In 1976, Mary was promoted to Associate Professor of Biology until her retirement in 1996. In her free time, she enjoyed traveling, gardening, reading, and feeding her birds. She often volunteered at the Ronald Reagan Home in Dixon and assisted with the adult reading program locally.
