Topic: Learning Commons Writing Center

College Health Metric: Academics – The College provides quality, contemporary, and relevant educational opportunities to the community.

Presented By: Drs. David Hellmich and Jon Mandrell

Presentation:

To meet the objectives of SVCC's Title III grant, the College established the Learning Commons Writing Center in 2020. The Center provides students with one-on-one consultations at every stage of the writing process. The staff works with all students on any piece of writing and collaborates with faculty to address the various needs of their instruction. Recently, the Center has expanded its physical space to better accommodate student needs and provide additional support. An overview and report of the Center's operations will be provided.
