Presentation:

Sauk Valley Community College remembers Phyllis C. Barnes who passed away on March 5 at the age of 99. Phyllis had been part-time clerical support for Sauk’s Community Services from November of 1978 to July of 1988. She was well known in the Sauk Valley for her volunteerism, including at the Leydig Center in Dixon, and for crafting over 400 quilts that she donated to homeless shelters.
